

Please answer the following Letter of Intent questions:

1. Name of PI: _____ Affiliation: _____
2. Title of PI: _____ Email: _____
3. Office phone: _____ Mobile number: _____
4. TITLE OF PROPOSED PROJECT: _____
5. Project Summary – in 250 words or less, outline: a. project goals; b. project objectives; c. how project will be completed in the proposed period; and d. how outcomes will benefit stakeholders/end users.
6. Has the PI received previous NPMTI funding? ___ No; ___ Yes (if Yes, go to #11).
7. Project Duration: ___ 1 Year; ___ 2 years; Projected end date _____
8. Project Plan of Work – in 400 words or less outline: a. description of experimental methods and procedures; b. any scholarly work that is related to and supports the proposed research; c. identify gaps in the knowledge base that the proposal is trying to fill; and d. state the relevance of the project to the goals of the NPMTI and how this project will support the highly collaborative nature of the NPMTI.
9. Collaboration – Will this proposed project rely on collaborators? ___ NO ___ YES (If yes, briefly describe – 100 words or less).
10. Project Budget Estimate – Provide a budget outlining the funds needed to perform the described work. Any funds requested for collaborators should be included in the totals. Include a budget justification (1-2 paragraphs) to help explain the budget estimate.
11. Other Funding – Will this proposed project rely on matching funds, or other sources of income? ___ NO ___ YES. If yes, provide a list of any current and pending support in a tabular format that includes PIs, Supporting Agency, Total Amount, Effective and Expiration Dates, Titles and Main Objectives of each project(s).

Thank you for your submittal to the National Predictive Modeling Tool Initiative.

Review of your letter of intent should take about two weeks.